My working hours are not flexible. Every day, I follow the same time table. I start work at 8:00 a.m. in the morning and I finish work at 6:00 p.m. in the evening. It is generally tiring and I am not happy to work here. So, I am in the search of a new job.

Simone

I work in a small office and I work with computers. It's very busy and sometimes, the work gets quite difficult, but my boss always supports me. He is very patient and he teaches me a lot about the job. I work six days a week. I live with my parents, and only on Sundays, we have the chance to spend time together. I have a pet dog, but I don't have enough time to deal with it. My parents take care of it for me.

Bernard

My job is an interesting job because I provide assistance to so many different people every day. I work at the tourist information and ticket desk in a big international train station. It's great to try to assist people. I often speak to tourists coming from France. It is a good opportunity for me to improve my French. I work until late hours. Sometimes, it is tiring. However, I can find time to relax with my friends on Saturdays and Sundays. We generally go out because I don't like staying at home on the weekends.

Naomi

I work for a holiday company. I travel all around the world looking for good hotels and restaurants. I talk to lots of different people and I really love this part of the job. There is not a certain working program for me. I don't have a regular life because I am always on business trips. However, I am still happy because I can travel to different places. I learn about new cultures and try out new foods. It is fun. However, my biggest challenge is that I don't have the talent to learn a new language. Therefore, I prefer to speak English wherever I go.

Jonas

I am a baker and I start my job when other people go to bed. I start work at 11.00 in the evening. I finish work at 6.00 in the morning and go home.
