The candidates who are successful in the exam are assessed and if they are entitled the right for registration, “Letter of Acceptance” is sent by online application system.

ASSESSMENT

HOW TO ASSESS APPLICATIONS?

The candidates who apply for short-cycle and bachelor programs of AYBU for 2020-2021 academic year from the quota of international students are subjected to a two-phased assessment process in the directions of the steps listed below.

Pre-Assessment of the Applications

- a) All candidates are assessed in accordance with the quota of “Application Type” they have applied to. The status of application of the candidates who do not submit a document regarding the application type is indicated as “Inappropriate/Missing Document”.
- b) The status of application of the candidates who upload their documents properly and without anything missing is indicated as “In the process of Assessment”.
- c) The status of application of the candidates whose condition is not similar to those is indicated as “Refused”.
- d) After the status of application is changed, information “Your application status has changed” is sent to the e-mail of the candidate uploaded to the system. It is candidate’s responsibility to pursue their status of application and consider related warnings in pursue & explanation part.

Assessment of the Applications

The placement to the programs is done per nationalities according to quota division. The result of placement is announced on the website of AYBU. Please see page 26 on which Table 2 that shows the exams and minimum scores to be considered in the assessment of the applications is available. If you have at least one of the results indicated on Table 2, you can submit more than one documents in the process of application.

The candidates whose application is approved on online application system are assessed in accordance with the steps listed below considering their high school diploma scores, one of the scores indicated in the table mentioned above (if available), their program preference and quotas and conditions of these program per countries and those who are successful in the ranking are placed to the related program in the line with their preference by AYBU.

- a) The candidates who have exam results from one of the exams indicated on Table-2-A are given priority in the placement to the related program within the quota of the nationality.
- b) After the placement of the candidates is completed, placement is done to the remaining quota in the line with Table 2-B considering the quota of the nationality.
- c) If there is still a remaining quota after this placement is completed, placement is done in the line with Table 2-C.
- d) The candidates who can certify that they have language proficiency for the language of instruction of the program h/she prefers in the process of application will have priority in ranking accordance with his/her score. Additionally, if these candidates are admitted, they will be exempted from prep class. Please see page 10 to see language exams whose equivalence is recognized by AYBU.
- e) The candidates who have applied for the programs that require Special Talent Exam and have pre-admission conditions are assessed in accordance with their success in special talent exams delivered by related Faculty/Conservatory/School.
- f) AYBU has the whole authority in the assessment and placement of the candidates. AYBU does not have to admit full quota. Having application condition does not mean that you will be admitted to the program.
- g) AYBU has the authority to decide whether additional placement will be done to the remaining quotas (caused by candidates' not doing registration or inadequate application to the program) after registration process is completed and to change criterions in placement indicated on the table.
